EVENT WAIVER: I know that participating in a walk event is a potentially hazardous activity. I shouldn't enter & walk unless I'm medically able & properly trained. I agree to abide by any decision of an event official relative to my ability to safely complete the event. I assume all risks associated with participating in the Walk & Roll-athon on March 27, 2010, including, but not limited to, falls, contacts with other participants, the effects of the weather, including high heat and/or humidity, & conditions of the road, all such risks being known & appreciated by me. Having read this release & knowing these facts & in consideration of your accepting my entry, I, for myself & anyone entitled to act in my behalf or on behalf of my estate, waive & release BIANC; Wake County, & all sponsors of the event, other persons assisting with the event, the officers, Board, Board members, agents, servants, employees, & their successors & assigns of each & every of the above from all claims or liabilities of any kind arising out of my participation in the walk even though the liability may arise out of negligence or carelessness on the part of the persons referred to in this waiver. I also grant permission for the use of any photographs, motion pictures, recordings, or any other record of my participation in this event for any legitimate purpose. I understand that if the event is canceled because of circumstances beyond the control of the event committee and sponsors, including, but not limited to, unsafe weather conditions or governmental ban, my entry fee will not be refunded.

The 5K run will not occur on the same day as the Walk & Roll-athon
