

GUARDIANSHIP

Guardians advocate for survivors and help them make personal and financial decisions. This section provides listings for organizations that deliver services and information to guardians. For more details on this process, please visit our Guardianship Information page.

Corporation of Guardianship
PO Box 13742
Greensboro, NC 27415

Phone: (336) 273 – 5389
www.corpguard.org

The Corporation of Guardianship is a private, not-for-profit group headquartered in Greensboro, North Carolina, that serves clients with diminished capacity (a handicap) or those planning for that possibility.

First in Families of NC
3109 University Drive, Suite 100
Durham, NC 27707

Phone: (919) 251 – 8368
<http://www.fifnc.org>

First in Families of North Carolina assists people with disabilities and their families to achieve their goals and realize their dreams. Please visit the website to see which counties they serve.

Hope for the Future
577 Haywood Rd.
Asheville, NC 28806

Phone: (828) 505 - 4335

LIFeguardianship of the Arc of NC
343 E. Six Forks Road, Suite 320
Raleigh, NC 27609

Phone: (919) 782 – 4632
Toll Free: (800) 662 – 8706
www.arcnc.org

LIFeguardianship enables The Arc of NC to become guardian for individuals when there is no family member or other individual able to perform this duty and all other resources have been exhausted.

Life Plan Trust
122 Salem Towne Ct.
Apex, NC 27502

Phone: (919) 589 – 0017
Toll Free: (888) 301 – 0799
www.lifeplantrustnc.org
74.84.218.158/life-plan-trust

Life Plan Trust serves families of and persons with developmental disabilities and/or mental illness, providing comprehensive information on effective estate and future care planning, and coordination with government benefit eligibility.

North Carolina Guardianship Association
PO Box 17673
Raleigh, NC 27619

Phone: (919) 704-9416
Email: ncguardianship@gmail.com
www.nc-guardian.org

NCGA is a not-for-profit that works to enhance guardianship practices and to promote alternatives to guardianship in North Carolina.