

GUARDIANSHIP

Guardian advocates assist persons with making personal and financial decisions. This section provides listings for organizations that deliver services and information about guardianship and personal and financial decisions. For more details on this process, please visit our Guardianship Information page.

Corporation of Guardianship

PO Box 13742
Greensboro, NC 27415

Phone: (336) 273 – 5389

www.corpguard.org

The Corporation of Guardianship is a private, not-for-profit organization that provides fiduciary services and care management to vulnerable persons based on person-centered principles.

First in Families of NC

3109 University Drive, Suite 100
Durham, NC 27707

Phone: (919) 251 – 8368

<http://www.fifnc.org>

First in Families of North Carolina assists people with disabilities and their families to achieve their goals and realize their dreams. Please visit the website to see which counties they serve.

Hope for the Future

577 Haywood Rd.
Asheville, NC 28806

Phone: (828) 505 - 4335

LIFeguardianship of the Arc of NC

353 E. Six Forks Road, Suite 300
Raleigh, NC 27609

Phone: (919) 782 – 4632

Toll Free: (800) 662 – 8706

www.arcnc.org

LIFeguardianship enables The Arc of NC to become guardian for individuals when there is no family member or other individual able to perform this duty and all other resources have been exhausted.

Life Plan Trust

800 W. Williams St., Suite 231-i
Apex, NC 27502

Phone: (919) 589 – 0017

Toll Free: (888) 301 – 0799

www.lifeplantrustnc.org
74.84.218.158/life-plan-trust

Life Plan Trust is a public, non-profit corporation that provides financial management as trustee for individuals with mental illnesses and intellectual and developmental disabilities. Life Plan Trust provides services throughout the State of NC and has Regional Family Services Coordinators assigned to each beneficiary.

North Carolina Guardianship Association
P. O. Box 673
Clemmons, NC 27012

Phone: (336) 701-6135
Email: ncguardianshipassoc@gmail.com
www.nc-guardian.org

NCGA is a not-for-profit that works to enhance guardianship practices and to promote alternatives to guardianship in North Carolina.